Index to Volume 43

Volumes 1 through 20 of the Journal are indexed in a separately-printed cumulative index. Copies of it will be mailed without charge upon request. A second cumulative index for volumes 21 through 40 is now in preparation, and announcement will be made in the Journal when it is ready for distribution.

Authors

Alexander, Paul W.—Public service must be lawyer's motivation (letter), 30.
Allison, Junius L.—Counsel for the indigent defendent (letter), 30.
Amram, Philip W.—A simple solution (letter), 209.
Anderson, G. C. A.—Medical testimony in the courts—should we have court-appointed experts? 79-86.
Anthony, J. Garner—The judiciary under the constitution of the state of Hawaii, 13-16.
Brougham, Lord—Quotation, 180.
Boyd, Jr., David F.—Arbitration agreements-justice or expediency (letter), 65-66.
Burke, Louis H.—Problems of court administration in a metropolitan court, 190-202.
Clark, Tom C.—Internal operation of the United States Supreme Court, 45-51.
Cohen, Saul—World peace through world law (letter), 104.
Coldstream, K. C. B., Sir George Phillips—Judicial appointments in England 41-44, 55.
Crossman, Raymond M.—Travesty upon justice (letter), 104.
Davis, Laurence—Court reform in the Navajo nation, 52-55. Increased efficiency result of new Navajo court system (letter), 103-104.
Drown, Frank S.—Philadelphia Municipal Court one of earliest family courts (letter), 104.
Eckler, John—Delay in the Court, by Hans Zeisel, Harry Kalven, Jr. and Bernard Buchholz (book review), 105-106.
Editorials—Justice costs too much, 3. World peace through world law, 4. Irrevocable judgments, 39. Judges as lobbyists, 40. A bi-partisan judiciary, 75. Payola in court, 111-112. Chicago elects its judges, 147-148. Judicial Administration in Asia, 183-185.
Eisenhower, Dwight D.—Quotation and photograph, 216.
Goddard, Lord—Politics and the British bench, 124-125, 128-133.
Griswold, Erwin N.—Room for improvement (letter), 104. Payola in court (letter), 209.
Gruver II, William R.—The bar and public relations (letter), 209.
Harley, Herbert—Quotation and photograph, 72.
Harno, Albert J.—Modern Criminal Procedure, by Roy Moreland (book review), 141.
Hayes, David J. A.—Quotation and photograph, 108.
Hemker, Forrest M.—Experience under the Missouri non-partisan court plan, 159-161.
Invernezzi, Frederick W.—The office and work of the court administrator, 186-189.
Jones, Walter B.—One of our most worthwhile institutions (letter), 139.
Kalven, Jr., Harry—Lagging Justice, edited by Glenn R. Winters, (book review), 210-211.
Klein, Fannie J.—Reimbursement of client is indemnity fund's purpose (letter), 102.
Kohn, Louis A.—Improving Our Courts, by Shelden Elliott, (book review), 211-212.
McAulay, John J.—A diligent reader (letter), 29.
Morgantown Post—Scientific truth (letter), 29.
Morrow, W. G.—Alberta's assurance fund in effect since 1939 (letter), 102-103.
New Jersey Law Journal—Public relations and the bar—the ad damnum clause (guest editorial), 113.
Nunnelley, J. P.—When a trial by jury? 87-91.
Reilly, John E.—JP's right to perform weddings denied by Wisconsin's new family code (letter), 103.
Sims, Porter—No office more exalted (guest editorial), 5.
Spalding, Leo A.—An eleventh cure for court congestion (letter), 139.
Stason, E. Blythe—Law and the administration of justice in the Soviet Union, 150-154.
Voorhees, Theodore—Clients' security fund not embezzlers' aid (letter) 65.
Walsh, Lawrence E.—The federal judiciary—progress and the road ahead, 155-158.
Willcox, Bertram, Delmar Karlen and Ruth Roemer—Justice lost, by what appellate papers cost, 6-11.
Winters, Glenn R.—See editorials.
Witwer, Samuel W.—Action programs to achieve judicial reform, 162-165.
Wood, Rollin B.—Support for the jury system? (letter), 139.
Wright, Elias A.—The case against the clients' security fund (letter), 39-40.
Zeisel, Hans, Harry Kalven, Jr. and Bernard Buchholz—Is the trial bar a cause of delay? 17-23.

Lawyers

Legal Education

Higher admission standards recommended, 62.
Need for 50 per cent more lawyers by 1970, 60.
New York judge holds pre-trial conferences in law school auditorium, 27-28.
Public service must be lawyer's motivation (letter), by Paul W. Alexander, 30.

Professional Ethics and Discipline

Philadelphia bar association adopts clients' security fund, 24-25.
The case against the clients' security fund (letter), by Elias A. Wright, 29-30.
Clients' security fund not embezzlers' aid (letter), by Theodore Voorhees, 65.
Reimbursement of client is indemnity fund's purpose (letter), by Fannie J. Klein, 102.
Alberta's assurance fund in effect since 1939 (letter), by W. G. Morrow, 102-103.

Legal Organization and Activity

American Bar Foundation to analyze criminal law enforcement methods, 97.
American Judicature Society—New members 34, 70-71, 107, 143, 179, 213. Coldstream to address annual meeting, 4. National Conference on Judicial Selection and Court Administration—Heads fall meeting program, 40; Society is co-sponsor, 77-78; Proceedings, 114-123; Text of conference consensus, 119-123. Stason will speak on Russian justice, 76. Record attendance at annual meeting, 76. 1960 meeting schedule, 112,149. Meetings in Portland, Washington, D.C., 185. Recent visitors, 64, 138, 207. Welcome to law students, 112. A diligent reader (letter), by John J. McAulay, 29. Room for improvement (letter), by Erwin Griswold, 104. Winters to study judicial administration in 10 Asian countries, 149.
Bench and bar calendar, 33, 69, 101, 140, 175, 208.
Federal appeals court holds gifts to bar associations tax deductible, 164-166.
State Bar of Michigan building, photograph, 36.
National Conference on Judicial Selection and Court Administration—Heads fall meeting program, 40. Society is co-sponsor, 77-78. Proceedings, 114-123. Text of conference consensus, 119-123. Scenes from national conference (photographs), 126-127.
Unique legal aid plan proposed in District of Columbia, 97.
Counsel for the indigent defendent (letter), by Junius L. Allison, 30.
Commissioners on uniform state laws approve model defender act, 95.
Model defender act, 96.
N.L.A. D.A. receives $800,000 Ford Foundation grant, 138.
Bar associations win top A.B.A. awards, 98.
Public relations and the bar—the ad damnum clause (guest editorial), New Jersey Law Journal, 113.
A simple solution (letter), by Philip W. Amram, 209.
The bar and public relations (letter), by William R. Gruver, II, 209.
Juvenile courts and women's clubs plan "day in court," 173.
Judges as lobbyists, 40.
Action programs to achieve judicial reform, by Samuel W. Witwer, 162-165.

Judges

No office more exalted (guest editorial), by Porter Sims, 5.
California and Wisconsin require judicial robes in court, 97.
University of Washington holds seminar for state judges, 62.

Judicial Selection and Tenure

National Conference on Judicial Selection and Court Administration, 114-123. Text of conference consensus, 119-123.
Lawyers' endorsements of political candidates critciized, 63.
Judicial vote follows party strength in partisan elections, 98-99.
Colorado—Judicial article revision introduced would abolish justice of peace courts, 169.
Connecticut—Bar and politicians cooperate in judicial appointments, 59.
Federal—A bi-partisan judiciary, editorial, 75. The federal judiciary-progress and the road ahead, by Lawrence E. Walsh, 155-158.
Great Britain—Judicial appointments in England, by Sir George Phillips Coldstream, K.C.B., 41-44, 55. Politics and the British bench, by Lord Goddard, 124-125, 128-133.
Hawaii—Governor renews pledge to consult with state bar, 98.
Illinois—Chicago bar association revises judicial poll procedure, 27. Chicago elects its judges, editorial, 147-148.
Indiana—Judicial selection plan has strong support, 168-169.
Iowa—Bar working for second passage of judicial amendment, 169.
Missouri—Experience under the Missouri non-partisan court plan, by Forrest M. Hemker, 159-161.
New York—Bar groups to approve judicial nominations, 98.

Compensation and Retirement

Judges as lobbyists, editorial, 40.
Here's your chance to get up-to-date judicial salary information, 172-173.
Seven states provide salary increases for

Index to Volume 43

Volumes 1 through 20 of the Journal are indexed in a separately-printed cumulative index. Copies of it will be mailed without charge upon request. A second cumulative index for volumes 21 through 40 is now in preparation, and announcement will be made in the Journal when it is ready for distribution.

Authors

Alexander, Paul W.—Public service must be lawyer's motivation (letter), 30.
Allison, Junius L.—Counsel for the indigent defendent (letter), 30.
Amram, Philip W.—A simple solution (letter), 209.
Anderson, G. C. A.—Medical testimony in the courts—should we have court-appointed experts? 79-86.
Anthony, J. Garner—The judiciary under the constitution of the state of Hawaii, 13-16.
Brougham, Lord—Quotation, 180.
Boyd, Jr., David F.—Arbitration agreements-justice or expediency (letter), 65-66.
Burke, Louis H.—Problems of court administration in a metropolitan court, 190-202.
Clark, Tom C.—Internal operation of the United States Supreme Court, 45-51.
Cohen, Saul—World peace through world law (letter), 104.
Coldstream, K. C. B., Sir George Phillips—Judicial appointments in England 41-44, 55.
Crossman, Raymond M.—Travesty upon justice (letter), 104.
Davis, Laurence—Court reform in the Navajo nation, 52-55. Increased efficiency result of new Navajo court system (letter), 103-104.
Drown, Frank S.—Philadelphia Municipal Court one of earliest family courts (letter), 104.
Eckler, John—Delay in the Court, by Hans Zeisel, Harry Kalven, Jr. and Bernard Buchholz (book review), 105-106.
Editorials—Justice costs too much, 3. World peace through world law, 4. Irrevocable judgments, 39. Judges as lobbyists, 40. A bi-partisan judiciary, 75. Payola in court, 111-112. Chicago elects its judges, 147-148. Judicial Administration in Asia, 183-185.
Eisenhower, Dwight D.—Quotation and photograph, 216.
Goddard, Lord—Politics and the British bench, 124-125, 128-133.
Griswold, Erwin N.—Room for improvement (letter), 104. Payola in court (letter), 209.
Gruver II, William R.—The bar and public relations (letter), 209.
Harley, Herbert—Quotation and photograph, 72.
Harno, Albert J.—Modern Criminal Procedure, by Roy Moreland (book review), 141.
Hayes, David J. A.—Quotation and photograph, 108.
Hemker, Forrest M.—Experience under the Missouri non-partisan court plan, 159-161.
Invernezzi, Frederick W.—The office and work of the court administrator, 186-189.
Jones, Walter B.—One of our most worthwhile institutions (letter), 139.
Kalven, Jr., Harry—Lagging Justice, edited by Glenn R. Winters, (book review), 210-211.
Klein, Fannie J.—Reimbursement of client is indemnity fund's purpose (letter), 102.
Kohn, Louis A.—Improving Our Courts, by Shelden Elliott, (book review), 211-212.
McAulay, John J.—A diligent reader (letter), 29.
Morgantown Post—Scientific truth (letter), 29.
Morrow, W. G.—Alberta's assurance fund in effect since 1939 (letter), 102-103.
New Jersey Law Journal—Public relations and the bar—the ad damnum clause (guest editorial), 113.
Nunnelley, J. P.—When a trial by jury? 87-91.
Reilly, John E.—JP's right to perform weddings denied by Wisconsin's new family code (letter), 103.
Sims, Porter—No office more exalted (guest editorial), 5.
Spalding, Leo A.—An eleventh cure for court congestion (letter), 139.
Stason, E. Blythe—Law and the administration of justice in the Soviet Union, 150-154.
Voorhees, Theodore—Clients' security fund not embezzlers' aid (letter) 65.
Walsh, Lawrence E.—The federal judiciary—progress and the road ahead, 155-158.
Willcox, Bertram, Delmar Karlen and Ruth Roemer—Justice lost, by what appellate papers cost, 6-11.
Winters, Glenn R.—See editorials.
Witwer, Samuel W.—Action programs to achieve judicial reform, 162-165.
Wood, Rollin B.—Support for the jury system? (letter), 139.
Wright, Elias A.—The case against the clients' security fund (letter), 39-40.
Zeisel, Hans, Harry Kalven, Jr. and Bernard Buchholz—Is the trial bar a cause of delay? 17-23.

Lawyers

Legal Education

Higher admission standards recommended, 62.
Need for 50 per cent more lawyers by 1970, 60.
New York judge holds pre-trial conferences in law school auditorium, 27-28.
Public service must be lawyer's motivation (letter), by Paul W. Alexander, 30.

Professional Ethics and Discipline

Philadelphia bar association adopts clients' security fund, 24-25.
The case against the clients' security fund (letter), by Elias A. Wright, 29-30.
Clients' security fund not embezzlers' aid (letter), by Theodore Voorhees, 65.
Reimbursement of client is indemnity fund's purpose (letter), by Fannie J. Klein, 102.
Alberta's assurance fund in effect since 1939 (letter), by W. G. Morrow, 102-103.

Legal Organization and Activity

American Bar Foundation to analyze criminal law enforcement methods, 97.
American Judicature Society—New members 34, 70-71, 107, 143, 179, 213. Coldstream to address annual meeting, 4. National Conference on Judicial Selection and Court Administration—Heads fall meeting program, 40; Society is co-sponsor, 77-78; Proceedings, 114-123; Text of conference consensus, 119-123. Stason will speak on Russian justice, 76. Record attendance at annual meeting, 76. 1960 meeting schedule, 112,149. Meetings in Portland, Washington, D.C., 185. Recent visitors, 64, 138, 207. Welcome to law students, 112. A diligent reader (letter), by John J. McAulay, 29. Room for improvement (letter), by Erwin Griswold, 104. Winters to study judicial administration in 10 Asian countries, 149.
Bench and bar calendar, 33, 69, 101, 140, 175, 208.
Federal appeals court holds gifts to bar associations tax deductible, 164-166.
State Bar of Michigan building, photograph, 36.
National Conference on Judicial Selection and Court Administration—Heads fall meeting program, 40. Society is co-sponsor, 77-78. Proceedings, 114-123. Text of conference consensus, 119-123. Scenes from national conference (photographs), 126-127.
Unique legal aid plan proposed in District of Columbia, 97.
Counsel for the indigent defendent (letter), by Junius L. Allison, 30.
Commissioners on uniform state laws approve model defender act, 95.
Model defender act, 96.
N.L.A. D.A. receives $800,000 Ford Foundation grant, 138.
Bar associations win top A.B.A. awards, 98.
Public relations and the bar—the ad damnum clause (guest editorial), New Jersey Law Journal, 113.
A simple solution (letter), by Philip W. Amram, 209.
The bar and public relations (letter), by William R. Gruver, II, 209.
Juvenile courts and women's clubs plan "day in court," 173.
Judges as lobbyists, 40.
Action programs to achieve judicial reform, by Samuel W. Witwer, 162-165.

Judges

No office more exalted (guest editorial), by Porter Sims, 5.
California and Wisconsin require judicial robes in court, 97.
University of Washington holds seminar for state judges, 62.

Judicial Selection and Tenure

National Conference on Judicial Selection and Court Administration, 114-123. Text of conference consensus, 119-123.
Lawyers' endorsements of political candidates critciized, 63.
Judicial vote follows party strength in partisan elections, 98-99.
Colorado—Judicial article revision introduced would abolish justice of peace courts, 169.
Connecticut—Bar and politicians cooperate in judicial appointments, 59.
Federal—A bi-partisan judiciary, editorial, 75. The federal judiciary-progress and the road ahead, by Lawrence E. Walsh, 155-158.
Great Britain—Judicial appointments in England, by Sir George Phillips Coldstream, K.C.B., 41-44, 55. Politics and the British bench, by Lord Goddard, 124-125, 128-133.
Hawaii—Governor renews pledge to consult with state bar, 98.
Illinois—Chicago bar association revises judicial poll procedure, 27. Chicago elects its judges, editorial, 147-148.
Indiana—Judicial selection plan has strong support, 168-169.
Iowa—Bar working for second passage of judicial amendment, 169.
Missouri—Experience under the Missouri non-partisan court plan, by Forrest M. Hemker, 159-161.
New York—Bar groups to approve judicial nominations, 98.

Compensation and Retirement

Judges as lobbyists, editorial, 40.
Here's your chance to get up-to-date judicial salary information, 172-173.
Seven states provide salary increases for judges (California, Delaware, Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, Nebraska, and New Jersey), 61.

Maine, North Dakota and Ohio raise judges' salaries, 100-101.
Study automatic pay increases for California judges, 138.
Payola in court, editorial, 111.

Courts

Action programs to achieve judicial reform, by Samuel W. Witwer, 162-165.
Improving our courts, by Shelden Elliott (book review), by Louis A. Kohn, 211-212.

Court Organization and Jurisdiction

Alaska—Ninth circuit ruling leaves Alaska without appeals court, 35. Supreme Court "ready for business," 136.
Arizona—Judicial article revision is aimed at court congestion, 206.
Colorado—Judicial article revision introduced would abolish justice of the peace courts, 169.
Federal—Internal operation of the United States Supreme Court, by Tom C. Clark, 45-51. Olney sees little hope of relief in new federal diversity statute, 61-62.
Hawaii—The judiciary under the constitution, by J. Garner Anthony, 13-16. The judicial article of the constitution of Hawaii, 16. Our fiftieth state (letter), by William Hawley Atwell, 104.
Illinois—Supreme Court says final "no" to 1958 judicial election contest, 173.
Iowa—Legislature passes major court reorganization bill, 27.
Navajo Reservation—Court reform in the Navajo nation, 52-55; Increased efficiency result of new Navajo court system, 103-104, by Laurence Davis.
New York—Prospects good for "half a loaf" court reform, 168.
North Carolina—Court reform defeated, 35.
Ohio—Legislature studies Ohio court system, 97.
Oklahoma—Quick Action by Legislature Averts "Emergency," 206.
Soviet Union—Law and the administration of justice in the Soviet Union, by E. Blythe Stason, 150-154.

Minor Courts

Colorado—Judicial article revision introduced would abolish justice of the peace courts, 169.
Connecticut—Details of new minor court act, 25-26. Minor court reorganization moves ahead, 169-170.
Illinois—Passes j.p. reform bill, 35.
Michigan—Court adopts rules to supervise justice of the peace, 100. State Bar of Michigan recommends abolishment of justice of the peace system, 100. Justices association tries certification, 170.
Minnesota—Joins in minor court reform, 100.
New Hampshire—"Kangaroo courts" found in minor court survey, 170.
New Mexico—Justices of the peace investigated, 100. Payola in court, 111-112.
Washington—JP's right to perform weddings denied by new family code (letter), by John E. Reilly.

Special Courts

Expect move to replace Connecticut's three century old probate courts, 134-135.
Family courts—Standard family court act published after four-year study, 25. Philadelphia municipal court one of earliest family courts (letter), by Frank S. Drown, 104.
Juvenile courts—Procedural safeguards, better supervision in standard juvenile court act, 205. Court forbids lawyer's use of juvenile court record, 62. Nebraska moves to establish juvenile courts, 60. Pennsylvania creates juvenile court judges commission, 173. Juvenile courts and women's clubs plan "day in court," 173.
World peace through world law, editorial, 4; (letter), by Saul Cohen, 104.

Court Administration

The National Conference on Judicial Selection and Court Administration 114-123. Text of conference consensus, 119-123.
Problems of court administration in a metropolitan court, by Louis H. Burke, 190-202.
Survey of appropriations for judicial councils and conferences, 137.
The office and work of the court administrator, by Frederick W. Invernezzi, 186-189.
California—Control of court clerks asked for California judges, 138. Judges draft plan to offset criticism, 134. Problems of court administration in a metropolitan court, by Louis H. Burke, 190-202.
Colorado—Illinois, Colorado, New Mexico to have court administrators, 24.
Federal—"Shocking" inefficiencies found in federal court administration, 56-58.
Illinois—see Colorado. Court administrators find ways to increase output, 171
New Mexico—see Colorado.
Pennsylvania—Court administrator and judicial council bill introduced, 95.
South Carolina—Chief justice granted administrative control, 59.
Texas—Supreme court building in Austin (photograph), 144.

Courtroom Publicity

Code of courtroom ethics for press photographers, National Press Photographers Association, 203-204.
Detroit court rule asserts power to suppress information, 204.

Court Congestion

Wide distribution planned for "Ten Cures for Court Congestion," 92.
An eleventh cure for court congestion (letter), by Leo A. Spalding, 139.
Delay in the Court, by Hans Zeisel, Harry Kalven, Jr., and Bernard Buchholtz (book review), by John Eckler, 105-106.
Is the trial bar a cause of delay? by Hans Zeisel, Harry Kalven, Jr., and Bernard Buchholz, 17-23.
Lagging Justice, edited by Glenn R. Winters (book review), by Harry Kalven, Jr., 210-211.
Increased delay in major state courts, 93-94.
Arizona—Judicial article revision is aimed at court congestion, 204.
California—Considers auto accident commission, 99. Crowded calendars delay criminal trials, 94.
Federal—Propose arbitration to cut congestion, 136. Olney sees little hope of relief in new federal diversity statute, 61-62. Slight decrease in backlog reported, 94. Pittsburgh federal court sets fine record, 170-171. New pre-trial technique, other devices, speed trials in D.C. district court, 205.
Illinois—Chicago court separates liability from damages and institutes medical expert plan, 136. Court administrators find ways to increase output, 171.
Maryland—Bar drafting unique plan to relieve court of appeals workload, 135.
Massachusetts—Auditors, district court judges, eliminate delays, 136.
New Jersey—Courts face 46 per cent increase in caseload next fall, 26.
New York—Delay in criminal cases growing in Brooklyn, 135-136. Magistrates drafted to speed juvenile criminal cases, 97.
Pennsylvania—Courts in Philadelphia institute "pre pre-trial" conferences, 60-61. Philadelphia proposals to speed disposition of minor criminal cases, 135.
Wisconsin—Plans to publicize judicial delays, 138.
Arbitration agreements—justice or expediency (letter), by David F. Boyd.

Procedure

National committees to recommend improvements in federal rules, 206.
Maine and Vermont adopt new rules of civil procedure, 59-60.
Michigan bar committee recommends new procedural statutes and court rules, 172.
Supreme Courts of Washington and Missouri promulgate new practice rules, 99.
New rules for Missouri municipal and traffic courts, 205.
New York civil practice revision is completed, 171.
University of Washington holds seminar for state judges, 62.
West Virginia adopts new rules of civil procedure, 134.
Public relations and the bar—the ad damnum clause (guest editorial), New Jersey Law Journal, 113.
A simple solution (letter), by Philip W. Amram, 209.
Medical testimony in the courts-should we have court-appointed experts? by G. C. A. Anderson, 79-86.
Chicago court separates liability from damages and institutes medical expert plan, 136.
Scientific truth (letter), Morgantown Post, 66.
Justice costs too much, editorial, 3.

Criminal Procedure

Bar Foundation to analyze criminal law enforcement methods, 97.
Modern Criminal Procedure, by Roy Moreland (book review), by Albert J. Harno, 141.
Oregon and Iowa further nation-wide trend toward coroner reform, 26-27.
Court forbids lawyer's use of juvenile court record, 62.
Jersey proposes state-wide grand jury, 172.
Irrevocable judgments, editorial, 39.
Travesty upon justice (letter), by Raymond M. Crossman, 104.
Commissioners on uniform state laws approve model defender act, 95.
Model defender act, 96.

Pre-Trial

Courts in Philadelphia institute "pre-pre-trial" conferences, 60-61.
New pre-trial technique, other devices speed trials in D.C. district court, 205.
Columbia project will test effectiveness of pre-trial, 166-168.
New York judge holds pre-trial conferences in law school auditorium, 27-28.

Jury Trial

When a trial by jury? by J. P. Nunnelley, 87-91.
Support for the jury system? (letter), 139.
One of our most worthwhile institutions (letter), 139.
Central jury pool succeeds in New York, D.C. Court achieves jury economies, 171.
Jurors handbooks now in use in Illinois courts, 206.

Appellate Procedure

Justice lost by what appellate papers cost, by Bertram Wilkox, Delmar Karlen, Ruth Roemer, 6-11.
Internal operation of the United States Supreme Court, by Tom C. Clark, 45-51.
Ninth circuit ruling leaves Alaska without appeals court, 35.
Maryland bar drafting unique plan to relieve court of appeals workload, 135.

Miscellaneous

Judicial administration in Asia, editorial, 183-185.
Items in brief, 28, 64, 174, 207.
A page of late news at press time, 35.
Back cover quotations and photographs—Herbert Harley, 72. David J. A. Hayes, 108. Lord Brougham, 180. Dwight David Eisenhower, 216.
The literature of judicial administration 21-33, 67-69, 105-106, 141-142, 176-178, 210-212